

The Roy G Post Foundation

Non Profit Dedicated to Education for the Safe Management of Nuclear Materials

Proudly brings to WM2008 Conference
February 24–28, 2008 at the Phoenix Convention Center, Phoenix AZ

Professional Opportunities Campus

Jobs & Internships

- Job Placement & Internship Center for Students, Emerging Professionals, and Women
- Meet representatives from DOE & others in the industry
- Current Job Listings onsite!

Networking

- Students & Emerging Professionals
- Professional Development Networking Reception (following the Student Poster Competition on Monday afternoon)
- Get to know others from the US & world, and learn about educational and professional development opportunities

Career Growth

- Women of Waste Management – Professional Development Panel
- Women of Waste Management Networking Reception (following the Panel Discussion)
- Current Career / Internship Openings representatives onsite for DOE Office of Environmental Management

Student Poster Competition

WM2008 Student Poster Competition BEST POSTER WINS $500 CASH!

Submit a 50 word summary of your studies/research work, and present it in the WM2008 Student Poster Competition on Monday, February 25, 2008.

Every student presenting receives
FREE REGISTRATION to WM2008!!

Submit poster summaries by email to:
papers@wmarizona.org

DEADLINE: Friday, February 8, 2008

Session Assistance Positions

Students participating in WM2008 who would like to assist with up to two sessions and receive a stipend of $50 per session can sign up with Mary Young at mary@wmarizona.org.

There are also complimentary student rooms available, so give Mary a call if you are coming from out of town. You can reach her at +1 520-696-0399.

For more information, log onto www.roygpost.org or email us at papers@wmarizona.org or michelle_rehmann@wmarizona.org